

True Light Girls' College
Use of the One-off Grant for Self-directed Learning English (2025-2026)

1.1 Students' reading and writing skills are enhanced.
Strategies / Tasks	Time Scale	Success Criteria	Method of Evaluation	People Responsible	Estimated Expenditure
(a) To subscribe to Language-learning platform for online self-accessed reading	Throughout the year	- Over 70% of students find the reading practical and useful for their learning of English. - Over 70% of students have completed the prescribed reading list by the end of a one year course.	- Questionnaire / Student feedback - Teacher observation - Statistical data collected from the programme	- Panel Chairperson - Form coordinators - English teachers of individual classes	$50 000
(b) To acquire AI services to enhance processed writing, awareness of editing and teaching	Throughout the year	- Over 70% of students express a higher awareness in editing and their writing skills are enhanced. - Over 70% of students have shown an increase in the scores achieved over the one year course.	- Questionnaire / Student feedback - Teacher observation - Statistical data collected from the programme	- Panel Chairperson - Form coordinators - English teachers of individual classes	$25 000
1.2 The English environment at school is improved.
(a) To run a drama training and orgainse interactive drama performance for the junior form audience.	Throughout the year	- Over 70% of performing / participating students find their confidence in English enhanced. - Over 70% of the audience members reflect that they enjoy the show.	Questionnaire / Student feedback	- Panel Chairperson - Drama teachers	$30 000
(b) To procure supplies and equipment for organising English activities to enrich students' participation and experiences on English speaking days and culture week.	Throughout the year	Over 70% of the participants find the activities interesting and their scope of view broadened.	Questionnaire / Student feedback	- Panel Chairperson - English Society teachers - English teachers	$7 500